Animal Use Policy

As required by the Public Health Service (PHS), Clark University has established an Institutional Animal Care and Use Committee (IACUC) to insure humane care and use of live vertebrate animal involved in research activities. The current chair of IACUC is Professor Susan Foster (x7204). Investigators whose projects use vertebrate animals, whether funded through external support or not, must undergo IACUC review. Full committee review normally requires two or three weeks.

For additional information on Federal animal use policies, please consult the websites below:

- PHS Animal Care and Use Tutorial
- Public Responsibility in Medicine and Research